Break: 10:30 - 10:45 a.m.

1. Some Thoughts About Health

In this collection of presentations there will be an overview and discussions of specific concerns for men and women (in separate sessions to invite openness). There will also be discussion on stress and ways to manage it with the demands from pressures we now face in our later years; and a session on medications with emphasis on those used by older adults.

2. A Lifetime of Taking Pictures

Corwin Berry will explore photographic history, pictures with stories, camera hardware, film techniques for taking good snapshots, album storage and other topics.

3. Scaredy Cats

Sue Manley, Program Director in Continuing Education, will explore basic computer terminology in plain English, what a computer is and how it works, how to get started using a computer, how to purchase a computer and more! Class is designed for those with no previous experience.

12:45 - 3:00 p.m. (Choose one class)

Break: 1:45 - 2:00 p.m.

4. Fantasy Literature

Dianne Happ, Wanda Phillips and Melissa Robinson, Peoria Public librarians, will feature the contrast between Harry Potter and The Dark Is Rising, fantasies for children and adults. Participants are requested to have read Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone.

5. Jazz Over Coffee

Ed Schmidt, Central Illinois Jazz Society member, will provide an exciting view of traditional jazz past and present. Live music is planned for the second session.

6. Scanners--How to Use Them

Sue Manley, Program Director in Continuing Education, will show how to scan photos, incorporate scanned graphics into other documents, send scanned photos via e-mail and manipulate scanned graphics.

Wednesday/Friday - January 10 & 12

9:30 - 11:45 a.m. (Choose one class)

Break: 10:30 - 10:45 a.m.

7. Adventures in Paradise - Sailing

LeAnna Karnopp Grimsley, local attorney and adventurer, will explore the basics of bare boat sailing in Tahiti.

8. Bible as Literature

Gil Nolde will take a look at the variety of different types and styles of literature in the Bible.

9. Wandering the World Wide Web

A first foray into the World Wide Web for those who are comfortable with computer hardware. Class will be taught by Jon C. Neidy, Assistant Director, Continuing Education.

12:45 - 3:00 p.m. (Choose one class)

Break: 1:45 - 2:00 p.m.

10. Public Television: Building Social Capital in the Digital Era

John Morris, Development Director for Channel 47, will explore the possibilities of educational and cultural contributions in the forthcoming digital public broadcasting era and the major community effort underway to build a new community-owned public station. Presentations by the various managers, personalities and programmers of Peoria-based WTPV, a PBS station.

11. New Cabinet - Profiles and Concepts

Dr. Bill Hall and Dr. Craig Curtis, Bradley University Political Science Professors, will take a look at the new presidential administration, appointments to the top positions, policy directions and generally examine the launching of a new political administration in Washington.

12. E-Mail Explorations

Jon C. Neidy, Assistant Director in Continuing Education, will explore etiquette, attachments, and signatures. All participants will acquire and use a Hotmail account.
