Growing, growing and, in many ways, all grown up. That's the Institute for Learning in Retirement at Bradley University as it begins its 10th year of existence. Along with the fundamental tenets and firm foundations which have made ILR strong, innovation and change have been hallmarks of our organization as well.

The most exciting new idea in recent years probably has been introduction of the teleconferencing method of teaching. Members also have warmly welcomed the institution of weekly art exhibits, the creation of our very own ILR logo, the adoption of lavalier-style name tag holders and the move in 2001 to the splendid new computer lab.

Among the most significant static components of ILR's success has been the invaluable support of Bradley University and particularly of the Division of Continuing Education staff. The tireless efforts of Janet Lange, Nancy Proehl, Jon Neidy and Wanda Lane have been essential to the smooth operation of ILR. Equally important have been our talented teachers, the wise and creative leadership of our nine past presidents – Joe Hession, Mary Buesing, Wilson Schroeder, Ruth Frost, John Quinn, Jackie Krag, Alf Berg, Teresa McCabe and John Mason – and, of course, the willingness of so very many individual ILR members to volunteer whenever and wherever needed.

Currently a committee is being formed to organize ILR's 10th anniversary celebration in October, 2004, and suggestions will be solicited from the membership regarding the most suitable way(s) to mark this momentous occasion. If you have an idea, proposal or recommendation, please share it with Jon, Wanda or any one of your officers.

Meanwhile, we trust that you'll enjoy perusing the course offerings – a record number, by the way – outlined in the current brochure, and we hope you'll give serious thought to joining us for some of the excellent Commerce Unseen trips and Regional day tours on tap for the Fall. Note that classes will begin on October 15 and run through November 5.

Last but not least, mark your calendars for September 24, the date of our Kick-Off Luncheon. The featured speaker will be Ron Kruse, President of Client Services, Caterpillar Logistics. Ron is himself a Bradley graduate and the brother of ILR member-instructor Dick Kruse. Scheduled to precede the luncheon is a brief orientation for new members.

See you all very soon in class, and Happy Learning!

Carol Morrisey, President

Chicago, Illinois
Trading and Exchanges in Chicago
Tuesday, September 30, 2003

Join us for a lecture, tour, and discussion of the Chicago Stock Exchanges by an Exchange Director. He will:

- take the mystery out of the many nuances of the exchange.
- explain how the Chicago Exchanges have a direct effect on Wall Street.
- clarify why a movement at one exchange affects the prices at another exchange.

In addition, an exchange expert on electronic trading will present a explanation for the results at an exchange, from the first click of the mouse at your computer to the completion of the trade. Our day will start at the Chicago Board of Trade with an introduction to the workings of the US Futures Markets. We'll observe live market action in the grain complex and trading from the financial floor visitor's galleries. Our next stop is the Chicago Board Option Exchange where we'll learn about stock options trading from the trail of an investor. Then on to the Chicago Mercantile Exchange for an opportunity to view trading of S&P stock index futures, the most actively traded financial product of any kind in the U.S. We will also hear about OneChicago, the new equities exchange launched last November, which is having a stronger impact on Wall Street everyday. Our day will conclude with a historical review of the growth of the business, from agricultural futures to modern financial instruments.

Cost: $75.00 includes tour, lunch, and charter coach transportation. We will leave at 7:30 am from Campustown and return about 7:00 pm. Please register by September 12. Jon C. Neidy and Wanda Lane will be your escorts.

Peoria, Illinois

Day Retreat-Reading the Landscape
Thursday, October 2, 2003

The retreat will provide ways to help participants develop observations of nature and deepen awareness of the connection between the natural environment and human spirit. Activities will include gentle walks led by naturalists Mike Miller and John Mullen through Wokanda's beautiful and diverse landscape, readings and discussion of various authors, and quiet time for personal reflection and journaling if desired. Finding our place in nature, seeing our reflection in nature, cycles and rhythms connecting us to the natural world, and stewardship of ourselves and the land will be some of the themes explored throughout the day.

Wokanda is a natural woodland gem located minutes north of Peoria and well maintained by Peoria Park District. It has clean and modern restrooms and kitchens. The retreat will be held in the OA Lodge, a spacious building nestled among the trees. The retreat will be facilitated by Stella O' Hanlon, with special programs by Mike Miller, John Mullen, and others.

Cost: $60.00 includes lunch, refreshments, writing materials and handouts. Car caravan from Forest Park Nature Center at 8:30 am. Retreat concludes at 4:00 pm. Deadline to register is September 12.

St. Louis, Missouri

Tuesday, October 7, 2003
St. Louis Art Museum Centennial

Our visit to the St. Louis Art Museum this fall honors a century of art and history. The museum's vast collections are housed within the only permanent exhibit building built for the 1904 World's Fair. As it did in 1904, the museum features masterpieces and ancient artifacts from around the world. We have arranged for a docent led tour of masterpieces and artifacts in the morning, followed by lunch at Ruthie's Grill in the Club House at Forest Park. After lunch we will return to the St. Louis Art Museum for a special presentation of The 2004 Centennial-Past, Present, and Future, presented by Stephanie Sigala, Museum Educator. After the presentation there will be time to tour on your own.

Cost: $75.00 includes tour, lunch, and charter coach transportation. We leave at 7:30 a.m. from Campustown and return about 7:00 pm. Please register by September 24. Jon C. Neidy and Wanda Lane will be your escorts.

*Manito/Forest City, Illinois
Thursday, October 23, 2003*

Touring the Imperial Valley of the Midwest

We'll arrive in Manito where we meet our host, Nancy Proehl, at the beautiful new Forman Valley Library. Enjoy coffee and freshly baked "povitica," a local Polish speciality. Next we'll visit an area grain farm during harvest, where we'll learn about life on the farm, view equipment at work harvesting corn, soybeans or specialty crops, and center pivot irrigation. At noon enjoy local hospitality with a country style farm dinner. After lunch tour Weaver Popcorn Company and Rickett Grain Company, the local grain elevator in Forrest City, to see what happens to the grain after it leaves the field.

Cost: $60.00 includes tour, refreshments, lunch, and charter coach transportation. We leave at 8:30 a.m. from Campustown and return about 4:00 pm. Please register by October 9. Jon C. Neidy and Wanda Lane will be your escorts.

*Elizabeth, Illinois
Galena Trail and Coach Road
Thursday, Novemeber 6, 2003*

Join our guide, Pat Goitein, as our bus tour follows the Galena Trail north from Peoria with stops at Grand de Tour, where we will meet John Deere, working in his blacksmith shop, and tour the historic riverside village. A buffet lunch will be served at the White Pines Lodge, a colorful CCC Lodge nestled in the midst of one of the last stands of virgin pines in Illinois. After lunch we'll travel to the Apple River Fort in Elizabeth, Illinois. Here we'll greet some of the brave men and women who defended this outpost during the Black Hawk War.

Cost: $75.00 includes tour, buffet lunch and charter coach transportation. We leave at 7:30 a.m. from Campustown and return about 7:00 pm. Please register by October 21. Jon C. Neidy and Wanda Lane will be your escorts.

*Branson, Missouri
December 7-10, 2003
Learning in Branson*

Join us for a learning and entertainment adventure at the upscale Welk Resort in Branson, Missouri, the entertainment capitol of the midwest (at the perfect time of year-during the beautiful Christmas season-and we'll do the driving).

Learn about the effort necessary to produce a Branson show. Participate in sessions with a young Branson star, an orchestra conductor, and choreographer, and tour the back stage area at the Welk resort.

Finally, attend lively daily lectures about the history and development of Branson and participate in the discussions on the future of Branson. Tour the Branson area and see the many theaters, ending with a visit to the I-Max Theater to view a film, "Ozarks Legacy and Legends." Enjoy performances at three shows, The Lennon Brothers and Gail Lennon, the Welk Show starring members of the old Welk band, and the fabulous Shoji Tabuchi Show. Treat yourself to great lodging at the Welk Resort, excellent meals, and superb atmosphere of yesteryear's "Show Biz."

Cost: $579.00 double occupancy ($699 single) includes tour, all meals and charter coach transportation. We leave at 7:00 a.m. from Campustown. Please register by September 12. Wanda Lane will be your escort.

Theater in New York and London

New York: September 18 - 22, 2003

London: May 26 - June 5, 2004

Please join us as we partner with Collette Tours to offer you fantastic learning experiences in both New York and London.
