WHO IS OLLI?

We are OLLI. We are your friends and neighbors, and we want to stay vital as we reach and enjoy retirement. One way to do that is to keep learning, so we've joined the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Bradley University – OLLI.

OLLI at Bradley has nearly 900 Peoria-area members from age 50 to 98 who come from all backgrounds and educational levels. Together we enjoy the camaraderie of our peers as we participate in a myriad of educational events designed just for us. The relaxed and friendly atmosphere of OLLI only adds to our experiences. It's learning our way!

OLLI offers several programs: Learning Trips, Study Groups, Classes, Special Events, and Lectures. You'll find many of them described in this brochure.

WE ARE OLLI!

OLLI volunteers are the heart and soul of our organization. We celebrate our success due to their efforts. Thank you!

OSHER LIFELONG LEARNING INSTITUTE AT BRADLEY UNIVERSITY

A retired couple in Peoria decided that they wanted to spend six months of the year in the South and six months in the North. They put their house up for sale and started investigating condos in Florida and cabins in Minnesota.

In the meantime, they went to a retirement seminar. The facilitator asked participants to list – independently – ten things they like to do. The husband and wife made their lists and discovered the two lists were almost identical. Here are some of the things they listed, in random order: Their book group. Bradley basketball games. Church. Eating out with friends. Golf (he). Bridge (she). Concerts and plays at the Civic Center and Five Points. Volunteering at Look! It's My Book! and Crittenton Centers. Gardening. OLLI.

As they discussed their lists, they discovered that they liked the people and activities right here in Peoria. They realized they would miss the very things that kept them eager to launch every new day.

They took their house off the market and stopped shopping for condos and cabins north and south. Yes, they go to Florida for a few weeks in the winter, and they still like to travel to unseen places. But they learned that their roots are here, here are the programs and activities that give zest to their lives, here are the personal relationships that have meaning for them. OLLI was a crucial part of their decision.

These two people, and many others like them, learned that Peoria has a unique program unmatched elsewhere in the country. OLLI at Bradley University offers programs and activities throughout the year, programs where people make friends, learn new things, and continue to be part of the good life.

This summer brochure is further evidence of how many learning experiences are available to older adults throughout the year. This is the third year we've published a summer brochure; it features Learning Trips and Study Groups that can help you grow in mind and spirit. If you haven't tried a Study Group, now is a good time to find out what they are like. And the ever-popular Learning Trips, of course, will undoubtedly fill up fast, so get your reservations in early. I'm especially looking forward to another Shakespeare trip this summer.

I'm proud to be part of this program. Proud to be a learner and a teacher at OLLI. Proud to be part of something that enriches the lives of people.

STUDY GROUPS

Maybe you want to drill down or dig into a subject of special interest to you. That's the focus of OLLI Study Groups where we investigate a topic in depth. These discussion-based classes often include the opportunity for us to make presentations, lead a discussion, or do some reading or work outside the class. In this arrangement, each of us is both a learner and a teacher.

While Bradley University is often our base of operation, we also have several community partners who are opening their doors to OLLI Study Groups. Lutheran Hillside Village, Methodist North, Peoria NEXT Innovation Center, Proctor Endowment Home, and Riverview Senior Living are great venues for this friendly give-and-take OLLI program.

British Women Novelists

Tuesdays, June 5 – June 26 2:30 – 4:00 p.m.

Riverview Senior Living

We will read two novels, with a focus on the Bildungsroman (the novel of education) by two British women novelists. The 19th century novel will be Jane Eyre (1847) by Charlotte Bronte. From the 20th century we'll look at Oranges Are Not the Only Fruit (1985) by Jeannette Winterson. Two weeks will be spent on each book. The first week will focus on the novel itself, discussing themes and cultural connections while the second will introduce a film adaptation of that novel. Participants should read both novels prior to the start of the group.

$44 – facilitated by Susan Hillabold, Illinois Central College English Professor and frequent OLLI volunteer.

The Forgotten 500

Wednesdays, June 6 – June 27 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Peoria NEXT Innovation Center

Back by popular demand, this Study Group is about Gregory Freeman's book The Forgotten 500, the previously untold story of over 500 American airmen who risked their lives to rescue American pilots who were shot down over Yugoslavia as they were bombing Italy during World War II. We will have the opportunity to meet Mr. Bob Wilson, who was one of these men (and an OLLI member). Participants should read about one-quarter of the book prior to each session.

$44 – facilitated by Dick Sanders, Retired Professor Emeritus of European History at Eureka College and popular OLLI Class instructor and Study Group facilitator.

The Seven Deadly Sins

Thursdays, June 14 – July 26 9:30 – 11:30 a.m.

Bradley University, Michel Student Center

Why does it often feel good to do something bad? In a world where we are encouraged to indulge, splurge, live a little – even visit “Sin City” – has the ancient religious concept of sin lost its way over the moral imagination? Your fee includes The Seven Deadly Sins Sampler, a $20 book of stories published by the Great Books Foundation. Janet Lange will lead us as we peer into the hidden recesses of sinful thought and behavior. Each week, participants will read a chapter from the book pertaining to a specific sin and be prepared to interpret and evaluate the text through shared inquiry and discussion.

$64 – facilitated by Janet M. Lange, Executive Director of Continuing Education at Bradley University.

Social Media: Blessing or Curse?

Tuesdays, June 26 – July 31 9:00 – 11:00 a.m.

Bradley University, Cullom-Davis Library

Join Jon C. Neidy for this investigative Study Group in which we will review articles promoting the benefits of and identifying concerns about social media. Facebook, Twitter, Google+, and LinkedIn are the four common providers we will use as the foundation for our discussions. At the conclusion, we will determine for ourselves, and as an investigative team, whether or not social media is a blessing or a curse. Participants will be expected to read, discuss, and share opinions with each other.

$44 – facilitated by Jon. C. Neidy, Associate Director of Continuing Education at Bradley University.

Midwest Prairie Plants

Thursdays, August 2 – August 23 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Methodist North on Allen Road

Do you want a prairie in your yard? Can this be done in the city? In the county? We will discuss the pros and cons of prairie plantings and what effect they have on the ecosystem. We will also review some prairie plant varieties and discuss techniques of establishing a prairie planting. Participants will be asked to choose a prairie plant to research and present.

$44 – facilitated by Jerry Whitlege, an ornamental horticulturist and Master Gardener who has been establishing prairie plantings for fifteen years.

The World of Charles Dickens

Thursdays, August 2 – August 23 1:00 – 3:00 p.m.

Methodist North on Allen Road

In celebration of his 200th birthday, we will look at Charles Dickens – philanthropist, social critic, long-distance walker, traveler, and great party-giver. He was also an amateur criminologist, actor, and hypnotist. Most importantly, he is among the very best writers of the Western world. Marge Semmens will discuss Little Nell and The Old Curiosity Shop, Peggy Carter will talk about The Mystery of Edwin Drood, Jean Gronewold will consider some of Dickens' favorite paintings and Pre-Raphaelite artists, and Jacqueline Kapanjie will help participants learn about 19th century London and Dickens' friends and family. Participants are expected to read both books prior to the start of the group.

$44 – facilitated by Marge Semmens, Peggy Carter, Jean Gronewold, and Jacqueline Kapanjie – all OLLI members and frequent OLLI volunteers.

Midnight in Paris: The Lost Generation Between the Wars

Wednesdays, August 15 – September 26

(NOTE: we will skip September 12) 10:00 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.

Methodist North on Allen Road

Learn about Hemingway and Hadley, Scott and Zelda, Archibald MacLeish, Josephine Baker, Ezra Pound, and many others as we return to Paris in the 1920s and 30s for a discussion of the expatriate community who Gertrude Stein called “The Lost Generation.” Through reading Hemingway's A Moveable Feast and viewing film clips, we'll consider the expats' personalities, their relationships, and their work. Participants will be expected to read A Moveable Feast. Each participant will be encouraged to make a brief presentation about an expatriate or related topic.

$44 – facilitated by Roger and Carol May. Roger, a retired District 150 instructor, and Carol, a retired ICC instructor and administrator, have both taught several OLLI Classes and Study Groups.
